

Barney Owl

By Jenny Giles
Illustrated by Celina Korcak

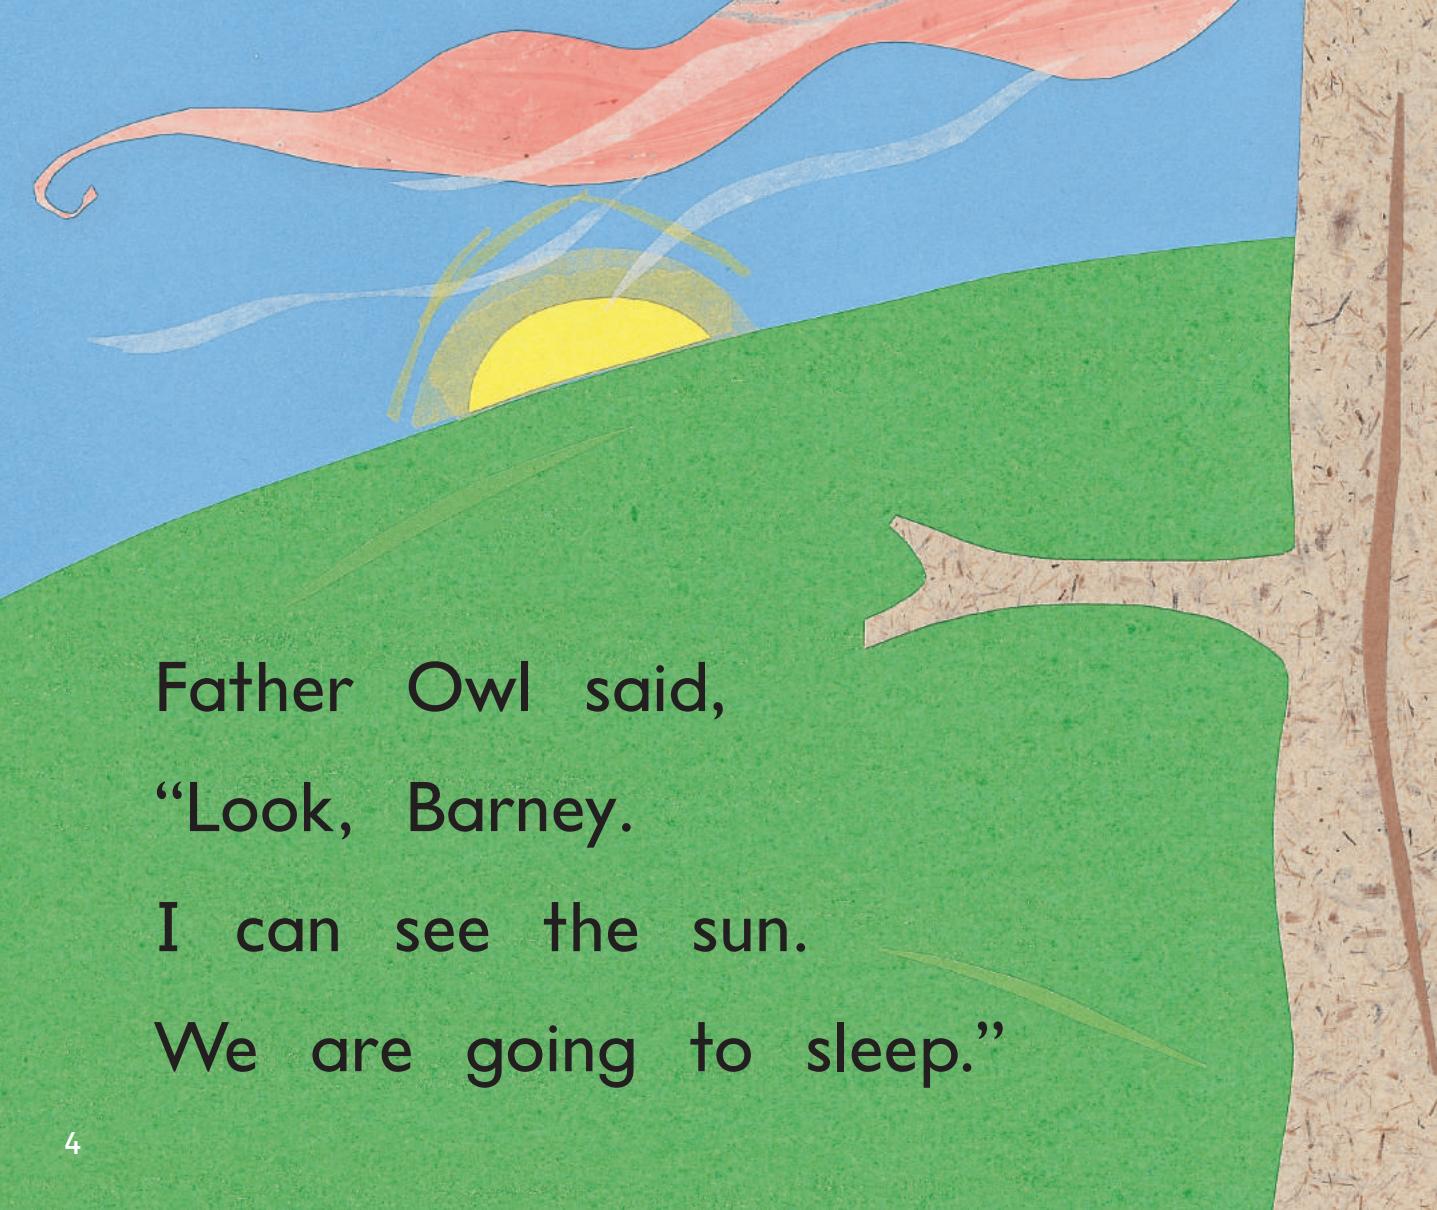

Here is Barney Owl.

Barney Owl is up
in the big tree.

Mother Owl and Father Owl
are up in the big tree too.

Father Owl said,
“Look, Barney.
I can see the sun.
We are going to sleep.”

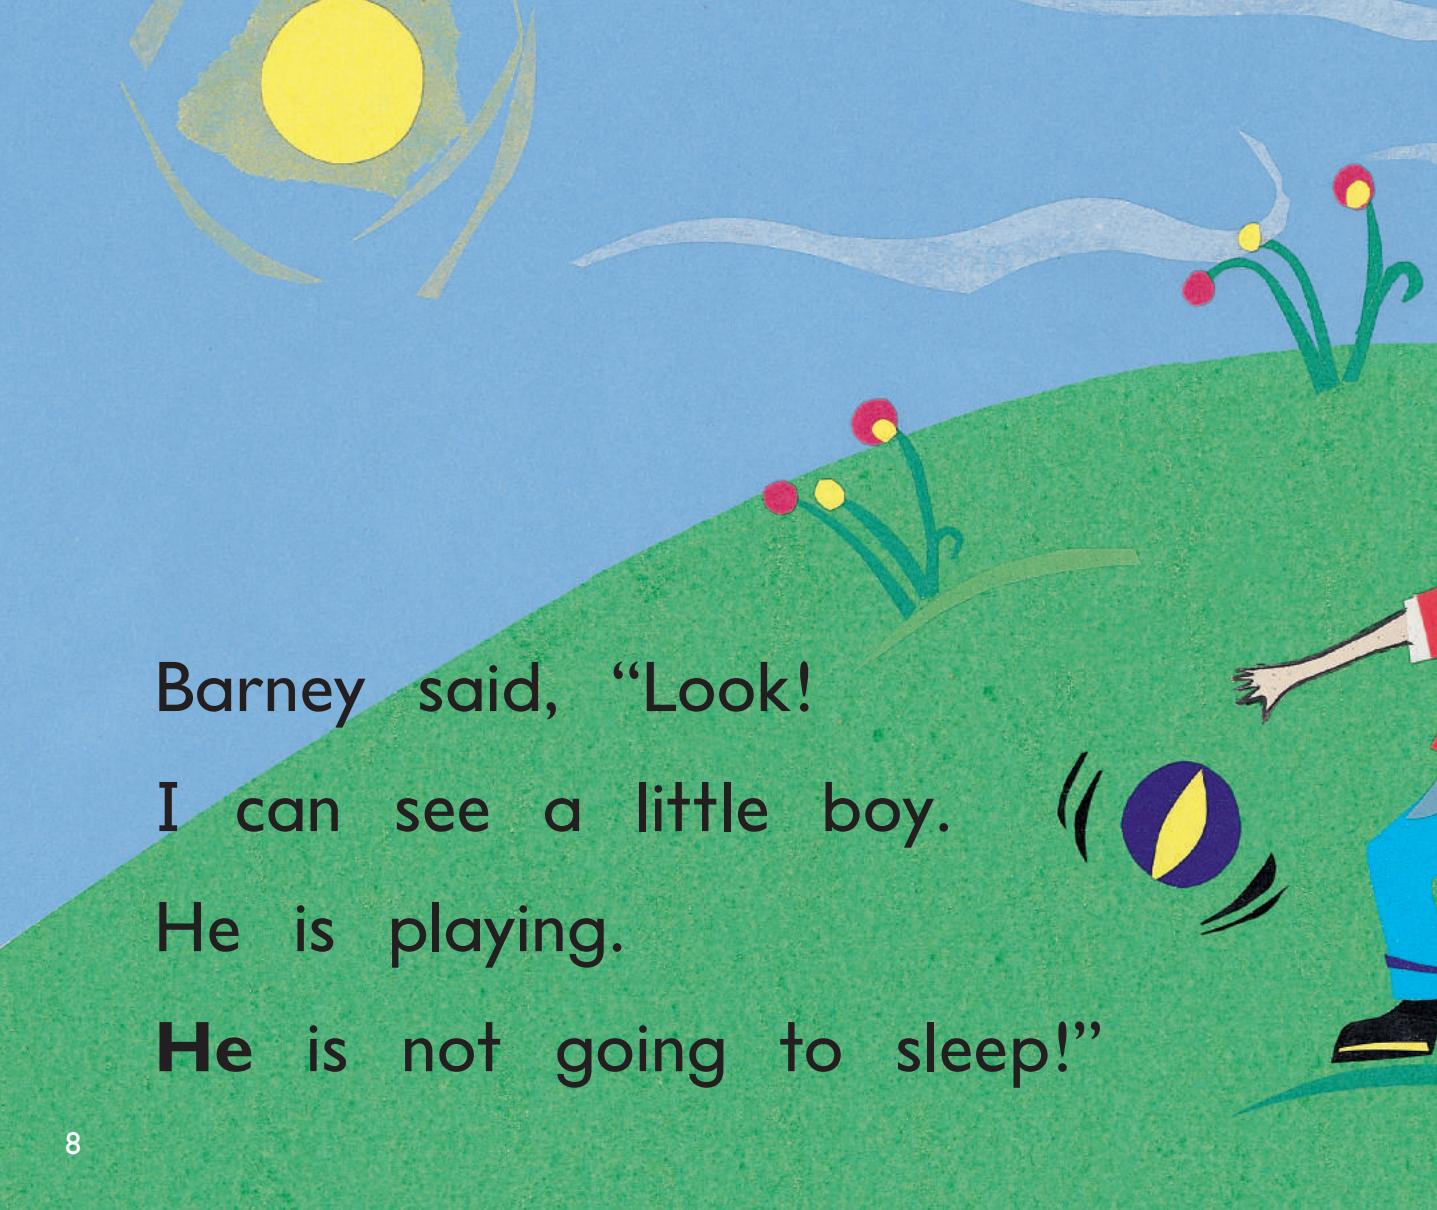

“No,” said Barney Owl.

“I’m not going to sleep!”

Mother Owl said,
“It is daytime.
Go to sleep, Barney.”

Barney said, “Look!
I can see a little boy.
He is playing.
He is not going to sleep!”

Mother Owl said, "Barney,
you are not a little boy.

You are a little owl.

Owls go to sleep
in the daytime.

Little boys wake up
in the daytime."

“Oh,” said Barney.

“Yes,” said Father Owl.

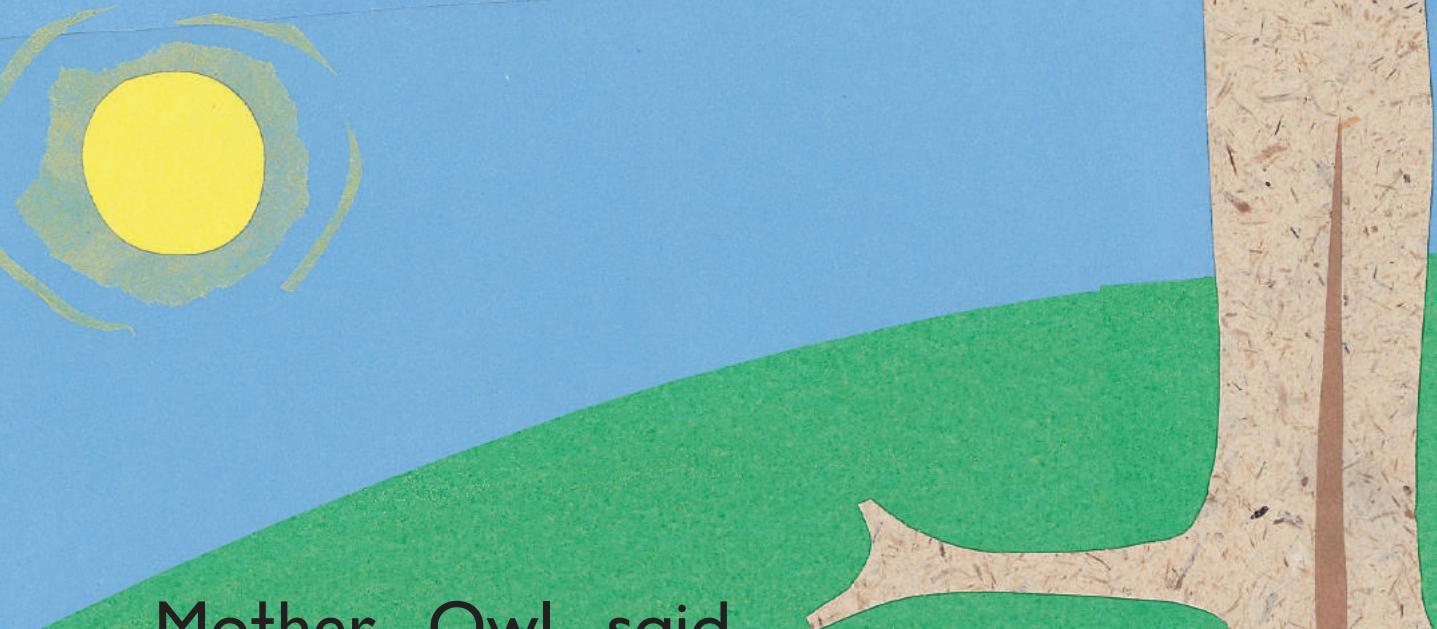

“Owls wake up at night.

Owls fly at night.

Owls eat at night.”

“Oh,” said Barney.

Mother Owl said,
“I’m going to sleep, Barney.”

Father Owl said,
“I’m going to sleep too.”

“Oh ...” said Barney Owl.

And Barney Owl
went to sleep too.
